Midleton FOOD & DRINK Festival

4th & 5th September 2004

You are warmly welcomed to the inaugural Midleton Food & Drink Festival

Your eyes will glisten, your mouth will water, your heart will delight on this epic adventure where the senses are awakened and the spirits lifted. The Midleton Food and Drink Festival promises to dance to the palates of visitors and sing to their appetites.

Drawing on the rich resources of the surrounding countryside and the superb Atlantic seafood, the festival will take to the streets and present to its visitors the finest of authentic and locally produced foods. This will include a unique array of breads, cheeses and meats as well as lavish flavours and spices from all over the world. Up to 50 fresh food and drink stalls will form the heart of the festival which will also be a showcase for experimentation in multiethnic foods and flavours. Visitors are invited to celebrate in festive fashion and immerse their senses in an extravaganza of aroma and taste sensation.

For children, the festival will be even more thrilling with street entertainers, balloon artists, face painters and jugglers, adding to the adventure. Crafts, allied to the gourmet specialities will be on show. At nighttime, the festive atmosphere will continue with live entertainment in the local hotels, bars and restaurants.

The Midleton Food and Drink Festival is set to become the region's leading food festival. With the celebration of local and international food at its hearth, the festival will champion the finest of food and drink bringing visitors on a uniquely sensual journey through the fruits of the earth.
