Youghal

<<< Youghal Clock Gate – Built in 1777 to replace the Medieval Trinity Gate is a pivotal point of the main street.

Youghal – a designated Heritage Town situated on the coastline of East Cork and on the River Blackwater is an ideal holiday destination for everyone.

This picturesque town where part of “Moby Dick” was filmed in 1954, boasts 5km of Blue Flag Beaches, enviable historic buildings and monuments combining past and present.

Steeped in history, heritage and culture, there are numerous delights to be explored such as golf, arts, crafts and water sports including angling, whale and dolphin watching, diving and deep sea fishing.

Youghal has a history stretching back 1,000 years that is exhibited in our Heritage Centre. Entrance is free to all.

The town nestling on the banks of the majestic Blackwater river as it reaches the sea. Youghal is the only town in Ireland with not one, but two, beaches that have been awarded EU blue Flags.

Youghal-Something for everyone!

Youghal, where past meets present at the mouth of the picturesque River Blackwater. It is one of the best examples of a Norman walled port in Ireland today.

Youghal's heritage stretches back 1000 years, and our Heritage is exhibited and celebrated throughout the year by a multitude of sights, exhibits and events. Ask a Youghal visitor centre for more details.
